Dimapur Outplays Peren with a 9-Wicket Win in the 5th Late G Rio Men's U19 Tournament 2025

Dimapur, April 7, 2025: In a one-sided encounter at the Nagaland Cricket Stadium, Dimapur cruised to a convincing 9-wicket victory over Peren in the 5th Late G Rio Men's U19 Tournament 2025. With a disciplined bowling attack and a composed batting display, Dimapur began their campaign with an emphatic win.

Match Summary:

- Match: Peren vs Dimapur
- Date: April 7, 2025
- Time: 9:00 AM
- Venue: Nagaland Cricket Stadium, Dimapur
- Result: Dimapur won by 9 wickets
- Player of the Match: Deepak Thakur (Dimapur) – 4/16 in 7 overs

First Innings – Peren: 33/10 in 14.5 Overs

After being put in to bat, Peren struggled to find momentum against Dimapur's sharp bowling attack. The batting lineup collapsed under pressure, managing only 33 runs in 14.5 overs. Anurag Gupta was the highest scorer with 9 runs off 10 balls. The rest of the batting order failed to reach double digits.

Dimapur's Deepak Thakur was the standout bowler, taking 4 wickets for just 16 runs in a tightly controlled 7-over spell. His performance set the tone early, with crucial breakthroughs that left Peren reeling. He was well supported by the rest of the bowling unit who maintained tight lines and ensured no easy runs.

Second Innings – Dimapur: 34/1 in 8.1 Overs

Chasing a modest target of 34, Dimapur made light work of the run chase. Openers laid the foundation, and despite the loss of one early wicket, the result was never in doubt. Arnab led the batting with an unbeaten 14 off 21 balls, guiding Dimapur home in just 8.1 overs.

Peren managed to pick up a solitary wicket through Monesor Basumatary, but it was too little too late.

Player of the Match:

Deepak Thakur was rightfully adjudged Player of the Match for his match-defining spell that restricted Peren to a below-par total. Dimapur's victory, achieved with efficiency in both departments, reflects their readiness and depth heading into the rest of the tournament.

The 5th Late G Rio Men's U19 Tournament continues to serve as a vital platform for nurturing young cricketing talent across Nagaland.

Niuland Outclasses Tseminyu with a 7-Wicket Victory in the 5th Late G Rio Men's U19 Tournament 2025

Dimapur, April 7, 2025:

Niuland produced a dominant performance to defeat Tseminyu by 7 wickets in their opening fixture of the 5th Late G Rio Men's U19 Tournament 2025, held at the Sovima Cricket Ground, Dimapur. With a brilliant bowling display followed by a confident chase, Niuland stamped their authority early in the competition.

Match Summary

- Fixture: Tseminyu vs Niuland
- Date: April 7, 2025
- Time: 9:00 AM
- Venue: Sovima Cricket Ground, Dimapur
- Result: Niuland won by 7 wickets
- Player of the Match: Sujit Kumar (Niuland) – 7/11 in 6 overs

First Innings: Tseminyu – 113/10 in 30.2 Overs

After winning the toss and electing to bat first, Tseminyu showed early promise with a steady partnership between Rohit Uddin and Sonyelo Kent. Rohit remained unbeaten with a well-fought 43 off 63 balls, while Kent contributed 30 from 65. However, the rest of the batting lineup collapsed under immense pressure from Niuland's bowling attack.

Sujit Kumar delivered a sensational spell, taking 7 wickets for just 11 runs in 6 overs—one of the standout performances of the tournament so far. He was ably supported by Jeetender, who chipped in with 2 wickets.

Second Innings: Niuland – 114/3 in 19.3 Overs

Chasing 114 for victory, Niuland batted with composure and control. Jeetender played a key role with the bat, scoring a fluent 37 off 33 balls to anchor the chase. Despite losing three wickets, the batting unit never looked under pressure, reaching the target comfortably in 19.3 overs.

Player of the Match:

Sujit Kumar was named Player of the Match for his match-winning 7-wicket haul that paved the way for Niuland's comfortable win. His spell turned the game decisively in Niuland's favor, restricting Tseminyu to a below-par total.

With this convincing win, Niuland has made a strong start in the tournament, and their performance will certainly be one to watch in the matches to come. The 5th Late G Rio Men's U19 Tournament continues to highlight young cricketing talent from across the state, fostering competitive spirit and sportsmanship.
